A referral-based program providing safe, compassionate, and enriching after-school care for under-resourced children in Skagit Valley.

About Children of the Valley

A referral-based after-school program for under-resourced children in Skagit Valley.

Founded in 2006, Children of the Valley provides safe, compassionate, and enriching after-school support for under-resourced children in Skagit Valley. In partnership with the Mount Vernon, Sedro-Woolley, and Burlington school districts, we serve students K-5/6 who are referred by a school teacher, counselor, or administrator for exhibiting substantial personal or academic need.

Free to the families and students we serve, our program provides daily instructor-led academic assistance, enrichment activities, and social-emotional learning opportunities, in addition to assisting families with meeting basic needs.

Cornerstones of Care

Our after-school program is built upon four cornerstones aimed at addressing the unique needs of the children in our care. These cornerstones of care include academic assistance, enrichment activities, social-emotional learning, and family support. By participating in COV, children achieve academic gains, increased attendance and engagement at school, and increased confidence and compassion.

Academic Assistance

Through regular correspondence with each child's school teacher, we are able to tailor our efforts specific to each student's individual academic needs, helping them develop better study skills, increase knowledge of core classroom curriculum, and boost overall self-confidence while igniting excitement for learning.

Enrichment Activities

COV strives to provide its children with a holistic, whole-circle approach to education which means opening the door to enrichment opportunities that may not be offered to them otherwise. Through an exploration of wide-ranging activities, our children gain real-world experiences and knowledge.

Social-Emotional Learning

Our goal is to provide COV children with the necessary tools to understand and manage their unique, and often confusing, emotions. The children are able to set and achieve positive behavioral goals, learn and show empathy for others, establish and maintain positive relationships, and make responsible decisions.

Family Support

COV provides support to the families of the students we serve. Our goal is to establish meaningful relationships with families to better understand the challenges they may be experiencing and how we can be of assistance. Whether it's through direct support or connecting COV families to community resources, we help families through any challenges that may arise in their lives.
